

New Mexico – Congressman Harry Teague’s district staff will host “Native American Mobile Office Hours” at the Acoma, Laguna and Zuni Pueblos as well as at the Ramah Chapter of the Navajo Nation on January 27th and 28th. Tribal leaders and members of the community are encouraged to attend to share their thoughts and learn more about the issues, agencies, and problems the Congressman’s district staff can assist with. Constituents can call Congressman Teague’s office at (505) 865-7802 if they have any questions.

Congressman Harry Teague developed the “Native American Mobile Office Hours” program to help his office address the unique and challenging concerns of tribal governments and individual members of the pueblos and tribes across southern New Mexico. In addition to opening 6 Congressional Field Offices, the “Native American Mobile Office Hours” program is a community outreach initiative developed by Congressman Teague to help him stay in touch with Native American communities throughout New Mexico’s vast second congressional district.

Congressman Harry Teague’s district includes the Pueblos of Acoma, Isleta, Laguna, and Zuni, as well as the Mescalero Apache Tribe, and the Navajo Nation Chapters of Alamo, Ramah, and To’hajiilee.
